

OLD HOME DAY

on Canterbury Green, rain or shine

Saturday, September 18, 2010, 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM

- Live music, great food, children's activities, animals, historical trades, vintage car rides, and more.
- Tour the 19th century one-room Green Schoolhouse.
- Buy an antique or some local produce or goat cheese.

- Watch a small post-and-beam building go up.
- Meet dozens of exhibitors from area nonprofit, community, cultural, and religious organizations, as well as farmers, re-enactors, artists, and pliers of many traditional crafts and trades.

Details at <http://www.canterburyhistorical.org/> under Events. Or call 860-546-9062.

Canterbury Green is next to the First Congregational Church – Rte. 169 (So. Canterbury Road), just south of the intersection with Rte. 14, Canterbury, Connecticut.

FREE Admission! Everyone is invited.

Sponsored by the Canterbury Historical Society.

